Makarska Riviera is a part of Dalmatian coast of Adriatic, extends over the 60 km, in the foot of magnificent Biokovo mountain, with a series of long beaches hidden in the pine shade. Main destinations – Makarska, Brela, Baška Voda, Tučepi. Sunny climate and long pebbly beaches make this region a popular tourist destination.

MAKARSKA

Makarska is one of the most famous tourist destinations on the Croatian coast, attractive for its nature and diverse tourist offer and hospitable hosts. Center of Makarska is an old town with narrow stone-paved streets and a main church square. Most of the city's hotels are located just off of the bay near the beaches.

HOW TO ARRIVE?

If you are travelling to Makarska by car or bus, depending on the direction (Austria, Slovenia, Hungary) you need to go through Zagreb to Split with main Croatian highway A1, or along the Croatian coast from Rijeka to Split or Makarska. The closest international airports to Makarska are the ones in Split (90 km) and Dubrovnik (165km). The train station in Split (80km) is just next to the bus station in Split, from where you can continue your journey to your final destination on Makarska.
